About

■ Hi, my name is Glammeow! ■ I'm a beautiful, approximately 2-year-old, all-gray Domestic Shorthair girl with a sweet personality and a little playful side just waiting to shine! I'm a little reserved when we first meet, but once I feel safe and comfortable, you'll get to see just how much fun I can be! I came from the same difficult hoarding situation as my brother Togepi, so settling into new surroundings and learning to trust can take me a little extra time. The 3-3-3 rule is especially important for me, and sometimes I need even longer than three months to truly come out of my shell. I just ask for a little patience, understanding, and a quiet place where I can feel safe. ❤■ I'm a very easygoing girl who gets along wonderfully with cats of all ages! Here at the Little Wichita Barn, I've made friends with everyone from tiny kittens to senior kitties. I even helped teach my brother Togepi how to use the cat wheel! It's one of my absolute favorite activities, along with sunbathing in the window beds and taking cozy naps on the couch. Don't let my laid-back personality fool you, though! Nighttime is when my spunky side
