About

Hi there! My name is Estrella! ■❤■ I'm Estrella, a 13-year-old, approximately 60-pound Black Lab Retriever with a gorgeous white patch on my chest, a frosty little face, and eyes that hold a whole lot of wisdom. But don't let my age fool you! I've still got plenty of spunk, personality, and life left to live! My journey hasn't always been the easiest. I recently underwent surgery to remove a large tumor from my tummy, and I've been spending my recovery time in a wonderful foster home. I'm still healing and haven't been spayed just yet, but I'm making wonderful progress, and my transformation has been nothing short of amazing! During my recovery, I've had the pleasure of living alongside some relaxed senior dog friends, and I've done wonderfully with them. As for my personality? Well, I'm just about as sweet as they come! I'm affectionate, incredibly cuddly, and happiest when I'm right beside my favorite people. I love being close, soaking up attention, and reminding everyone that a little extra love is always a good thing! I'm also a pretty smart girl! I'm treat-motivated, listen very well, and already
