About

Sweet Waverly came to us from a high-kill shelter after what appears to have been quite some time surviving on his own as a stray. He is a pretty small guy, under 40 pounds and incredibly assuming. We may not know his whole story, but we do know what a gentle, incredibly sweet soul he is. Waverly has so much love to give and will make someone an amazing companion. We cannot wait for him to have a home of his own, people who adore him, and the comfort of knowing he never has to face the world alone again. ❤■
